For more details visit the Versailles website.

Grandes eaux nocturnes - The evening water festival is in July

Les Grandes Eaux Nocturnes is an evening walk through the gardens of Versailles where you can admire the fountains, exceptionally lit during this period, and meet the well-known personalities who influenced Versailles: Louis XIV, Louis XVI, Molière, Marie Antoinette, Clemenceau, Napoléon 1st, Napoléon III, etc.

Fireworks top the evening's musical events chosen by the Centre de Musique Baroque de Versailles. For more information about presentation, tariffs, maps, etc. visit the Versailles website.

Les Fêtes de Nuit

Les Fêtes de Nuit are evening festivities at le Bassin de Neptune

Spectacle inspired by the engagement of the young Louis XV and his first cousin, Marie-Anne-Victoire, the Spanish infanta. (Insecula has more information on this story.)

By Bus : 171

Train : C, Versailles Château Rive Gauche

From the Paris-Île-de-France website: "Every Saturday evening in July, the grounds of the Château de Versailles will open specially in the evening for a spectacular feast of light and music. The gardens and their fountains will be lit up by projectors, torches and fireworks, with Baroque and classical music chosen by the Versailles Baroque Music Center, creating an enchanting, fairytale atmosphere that would have made Louis XIV proud. If you've never been to the château, this is an exciting and different way to discover it.
